

UNOstamps Newsletter

extra edition - 30 April 2008

issued by UNOstamps - Netherlands
edited by Maxim van Ooijen

Introduction

This is a special issue of the UNOstamps Newsletter. As you might know 30 April is Queen's Day in the Netherlands. On this day we celebrate the Queen's official birthday. This is followed by Remembrance Day (4 May) and Liberation Day (5 May). And on 6 May is my birthday. As you can see, a long week of days with national importance.

To celebrate these events this extra edition is issued. It contains only a quiz. There are three prizes to be won, so three people have a chance to win special UN related stamps from various parts of the world.

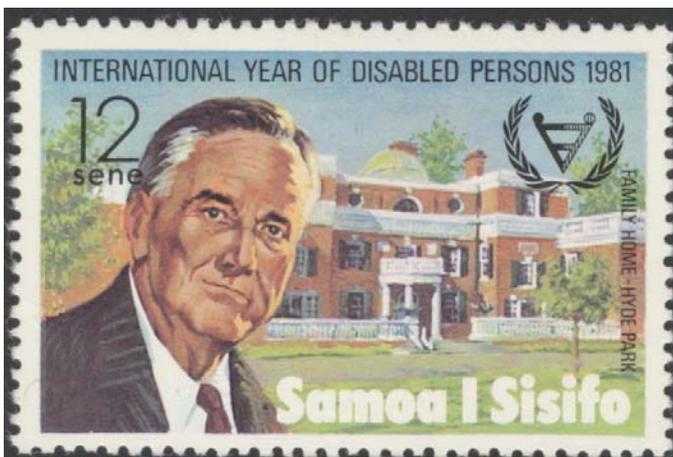

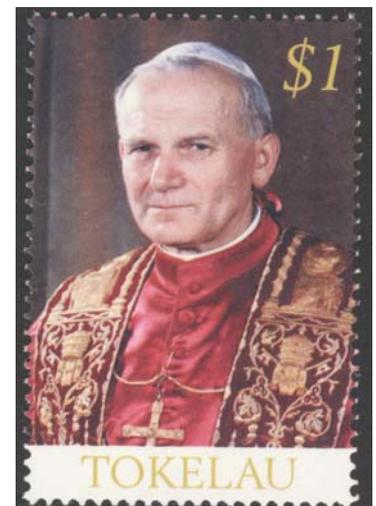

But, to win you have to give not only the right answers, but also send your answer in before the deadline.

Quiz

As Queen's Day is to celebrate our head of state, the question is about this important function. Here are three stamps from countries that are not yet on the website. On each stamp is a foreign former head of state. There are two questions.

Who are these three famous heads of state?

What countries did they lead?

A complete answer consists of three names and three countries. Good luck!

E-mail your answer to info@unostamps.nl before 6 May 2008, 23.59 h. Dutch time (CET). All correct answers will be entered in the draw. The lucky winners will receive one of the three prizes.

If you are interested in winning a specific prize, make sure your answer contains the name of the prize (UNO, Child or UPU).

Prizes

Prize nr. 1 - UNO

Several stamps from the United Nations offices in New York, Geneva and Vienna.

Prize nr. 2 - Child

Five series of stamps for the International Year of the Child 1979 from Burma, Greenland, Papua New Guinea, Seychelles and Tuvalu.

Prize nr. 3 - UPU

Two series of stamps for the 75th anniversary of UPU in 1949 from Bahawalpur and a series and imperforated souvenir sheet for the UPU Centenary in 1974 from Surinam and Barbuda.

Next issue

Newsletter nr. 10 will be issued on 7 May 2008. Not only will it have the regular items, but also the answer on the extra quiz and the names of the winners.

To unsubscribe from the Newsletter, just send an e-mail to info@unostamps.nl with the subject 'unsubscribe'.

See you next time!